To Be Free

Riley Pearce

I want to be
I want to be free
I want to be more than you wanted from meI want to see places I've not been
Come back knowing what it means to be meThere's a place
Around the little stairs
In the little staircaseI'm toying with the idea of a new place
And all the dust in my wallet
All the chains that I can't break
What if it's a mistake?I want to be
I want to be free
I want to be more than you wanted from me
I want to see places I've not been
Come back knowing what it means to be meThose ancient sights
Are passing by through strangers eyes
Loose yourself in those falling skies
And the better half of your day
Is spent finding your way back
On unfamiliar tracksI want to be
I want to be free
I want to be more than you wanted from meI want to see places I've not been
Come back knowing what it means to be meHey, hey!I want to be
I want to be free
I want to be more than you wanted from me
And I want to see places I've not been Hey, hey!
And come back knowing what it means to be me
And come back knowing what it means to be me
And come back knowing what it means to be me
