Stay Away

Charli XCX

You choke my throat
With words of wonder
You make it hard to breathe
Your love's so cold

Just like an arrow

Pierced through my skin I bleedI knew you were no angel But god, what did I do ohDo you remember what I said

That first time we met

Stay away, why couldn't you stay away

I never needed anyone

But now that you are gone

Stay away, won't you just stay awayTaking all my light and blocking out my vision

Bad little girl you have trapped in the prison

On my hands on my knees pulled on the chains

Licking up the blood yeah I made this decisionYou took my light

Trapped in the prison

You threw away the key

You are the curse

I am the captive

Walking on hands and knees

Never learn, never learn, never learnI knew you were no angel But god you're just electric blue ohDo you remember what I said

That first time we met,

Stay away, why couldn't you stay away

I never needed anyone

But now that you are gone

Stay away, won't you just stay awayStay away, stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away

Stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away

Stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away

Stay away, stay away, stay away, stay away, stay awayI climbed a wall

To touch your shadow

I hear you call for me

But you're not there

You're just an echo

Why did you fall for meDo you remember what I said

That first time we met,

Stay away, why couldn't you stay away

I never needed anyone

But now that you are gone

Stay away, won't you just stay awayTaking all my light and blocking out my vision

Bad little girl you have trapped in the prison

Stay away, why couldn't you stay away

Taking all my light and blocking out my vision

Bad little girl you have trapped in the prison

Stay away, won't you just stay away
