

Falling Off the Moon (Live Acoustic)

Nico Stai

oh my god
I'm falling off the moon again like silver hands sliding down the rails and I need it more than I can be I need it more than i can be your daddy is drifting into heart attacks like it's the last thing he'll ever do I've got this feeling like he's never coming back it's just the best that I can do and it's not it's not ok oh my god I'm staring at my limbs again the million dollar seconds ticking the plastic thoughts I might as well be peeling shadows off the bathroom floor you spilled it over but it's not quite you I've got this feeling like it's never coming back is that the best that you can do well it's not it's not ok it's not it's not ok the million dollar seconds ticking and it's not it's not ok nico stai 2006 sin paloma music
