Who are you? oh, whats your destination?
will you come around? oh, will you come around?
Who are you? oh, whats your expectation?
will you come around? woah, woah, will you come around?
Verse 1:
So, i been there before, maybe just once or twice,
i was locked outside that door, and so you said to me oh that it wont be long, no it wont be long before you our swept out of the wave, all these words may be the last you will say one to the left and now a few to the right, a little bit further on down you find the lightCHORUSVerse 2:
A little bit further on down that road, bumped into a man said son, your stories going to be told, not by the speed in with which you move but by the time you didnt lose, with those that surround you there all around you, theyre the 1's to the left and the few to the right, oh a little bit further on down you find the lightCHORUSBridge:
So when the devil may come. So when the devil may do
I cannot wait for the day when he's down on his knees, and bowing to you
So when the devil may come. so when the devil may do
I cannot wait for the day, oh no no no, no i cannot wait for the day no no no no, no i cannot wait for the day when hes down on his knees, and bowing to you.CHORUS
