Valentine

Martina Topley-Bird

It's, oh, so late to start wishing
This heart of mine, you're gonna own
They fade away and now you're here
I didn't know there's only youValentine
Go out in the lightWhy suffer back in the game
All living, all our sin the same
All the faithful heal, they're all praying
They refer toValentine
Oh, returnThey release you then you turn to see
Make it feel alrightThe only thing is that I didn't
I tried to climb my felon home
I feel overwhelmed and still your here
Your coming home but before you doValentine
Go out in the light
Out in the moonlit sky
I saw you there in blue
