

I Rise

Overkill

Voluntary action
Leading to the scar upon the face
Planning the reaction, the color
The moment paint the placeIn blood, in fire
Calling you back home to the demise
In black, desire
Calling you, witnessing the riseGoddamn this light, take it out
Let me see what you to hide
The parasite has his way
Until the day I riseIn pure retribution
Remorseful as the moment of his birth
In reconciliation
He ponders a solution in the dirtIn blood, in fire
A blessing of the few, immortalize
In black, desire
A calling to the witness of the riseGoddamn this light, take it out
Let me see what you to hide
The parasite has his way
Until the day I riseAwaken in time, god, self, liberty
Broken into pride all over me
Soaring, climbing, self, god liberty
Broken by my drive to set it freeFire in my freedom
Hatred in my heart
Long live the kingdom
As the king does fall apartBack off the ceremony
Count all the flies
Fight through the maggots
To reach the underlyPushing to infinity
Laughs replaced by cries
Push into liberty
Sanctify the riseGoddamn your light
It's in my eyes
Goddamn the will to kill me
Goddamn your prideGoddamn this light, take it out
Let me see what you to hide
The parasite has his way
Until the day I rise
