

You Never Had It Better

The Electric Prunes

Why do people's passions complicate the best laid plans?
Can you stop the hourglass if you hold it in your hands?
You know you feel like runnin' every time you see a cop
Is it more than you can bear? You know you gotta stop
You better stopGet yourself together you never had it betterYou're runnin' down the street and you see everybody walkin'
The bomb's the scare on Tuesday next, you heard your friends all talking
China's gonna blow us up, they've got the means you know
We know you'd like to run away, there's no place left to go
You better stopGet yourself together you never had it betterWho writes up the laws that all the people seem to keep?
Would I get arrested if I said he was a creep?
Children walk the icy streets alone without no shoes
Do you think you'll overcome 10 million bar-b-ques?
You better stop
Get yourself together, you never had it better
Get yourself together, you never had it better
Get yourself together, you never had it better
