

More Than Their Share

Dolly Parton

Writer Dolly Parton

Copyright 1968 I give an inch and you take a mile and you tell me to jump and I just ask how high

I've been over backwards to show you I care
And someone must always give more than their share

I say I'm sorry when the fault is not mine
And I take the blame for our fights all the time

I love you so much and it doesn't seem fair
That someone must always give more than their share

I know you well enough to know you would never admit you were wrong
And you know me well enough to know I give in cause my love is so strong

If I give an inch and you take a mile if you tell me to jump well I just ask how high

I've been over backwards to show you I care
Cause someone must always give more than their share
Yes someone must always give more than their share
