

Ain't No Mystery (Soundtrack Version)

Smash Mouth

Who is the man making a scene, fashion of green
Living it out and living it up to his name
Who wants some lovers gold, silver tone
Tipping it out it has claimed to fame I'm a mystery man I'm doing what I can
With a continental international plan
So come on now, it's all now
This play is here to stay
Let me break you down, let me make you understand
Don't you know your history
I feel it, I mean it
This play is here to stay
You're a woman I'm your man, this ain't no mystery Who is the guy looking back, coming back
Making it up so he goes and he knows
That she'll come around turn up frowned outside down
Breaking it up before it gets to world The keeney causes the girl some danger
My teeny hangover
He ain't no stranger to London, Paris, New York and Japan
I'm bringing home the bacon in a frying pan
????? Chinatown
If you're down, then I'm your mystery man
