

Burn The Bridge

Mudvayne

No integrity no sincerity no credibility no regret no principal no ethic no honor makes no fucking sense no inside to the future no thinking and no respect no authority no veracity no honesty no penitence no pride no power just a criminal no morals Your greed youd burn the bridge around me to save your self

Your Envy, You cant be what I am even with my help

Gluttony, Take everything from me take it for yourself

My Wrath, Ill just live my own life So Violent So Dissident No More Requiem so I lament

So Simple to Revere to respect down and left for dead

So forget my forgiveness youve all failed to protect

No Persistence, Insistence my will my stubbornness

Consume Devore Like a Criminal, no standards Your greed, Youd burn the bridge around me to save your self

Your Envy, You cant be what I am even with my help

Gluttony, Take everything from me take it for yourself

My Wrath, Ill just live my own life Before I saw the light I crawled through darkness my whole life So empty

Before I found my life I embraced the death thats coming

So Certain, Drawing Near, Its coming closer its approaching I know the signs

Ive got the number

I got my vision

I know the motion

My eyes forever opened Youd burn the bridge around me to save your self

Your Envy, You cant be what I am even with my help

Gluttony, Take everything from me take it for yourself

My Wrath, Ill just live my own life
