

Disappear

12 Stones

Paint a perfect picture of Everything I thought that this would be
But here's the truth
Its never easyStrike a match
And light the fuse
As everything we were Goes up in flames
And here's the truth
Its gonna kill meFacing all my demon
Leaving all behind
I see now you're the reasonI don't wanna be here,
So I will move on
I'll be the last one
Standing and dieTasting your tears,
Now you're drowning your sorrows
And I'll just disappearTearing all your pictures of All that's left of wasted memory
Of me and you
And this bitter endingThere must be a thousands ways
That we could watch our world come crashing down
But we found one
That's gonna kill meFacing all my demon
Leaving all behind
I see now you're the reasonI don't wanna be here,
So I will move on
I'll be the last one
Standing and dieTasting your tears,
Now You're drowning your sorrows
And I'll just disappearIf I stay here with you
The only thing that i'll lose is me
So I gotta let go, I gotta let goIf I stay here with you
The only thing that i'll lose is me
So I gotta let go, I gotta let goI don't wanna be here,
So I will move on
I'll be the last one
standing and dieTasting your tears,
Now You're drowning your sorrows
And I'll just disappearDont wanna here
So I'll just disappearI'm not, I won't came back,

I'm not, I'm never coming back So I'll just disappear
