November (feat. Kyne)

Adala & The Cold December

If you decided to leave this world
If you decided to leave me alone
I could be right I could be wrong
But I could not forget your song

When the rain will hurt me again
When all youâ€™ll leave me is your pain
I will just search your voice in the rain
I will just wait for your song in vain

But everything depends
I surrender or defend
That this November never ends

I lost so many things but now I know me more
Adala is my name I didn't know before
I was so thirsty that I forgot the source
If you can't lose more things what are you waiting for?

But I really feel ill I donâ€™t wanna stay still Only she's got the pill to cure my heart of steel
And tell me: How many times will we regret?
Just tell me: How many times will we be dead?

I say this: Nothing will ever die if it keeps being born
Nothing will ever die if it keeps being born

I'm still in love
I miss her so
November leaves me alone It must not be time to love x2

KyneÂ-

I'm still in love
I miss her so
November leaves me alone
It must not be time to love
x2
