

Make Believe

The Early November

is it enough
to believe that you are real sometimes it gets tough believing in myself
well is it just me
it could be that i'm always wrong
i hear it in my head
twisting and lies
till we're sure i'm wrong
but i forget
how you broke my heart
or how you find yourself
untimely falling for someone else dear and every time
something like this happens you always make it seems like i did something wrong to you well guess what i can't do this anymore

so next time
you're thinking about telling me
what i do wrong
think about
all i let myself
forget
why can't you
have me
and be happy
at the same time
