rampant micro life

Alchemist

Slowly cells mutate, reform, degenerate
Reposes our stolen fate, nuclei tears it's self in two Reproduction breaking through, confirming what is trueSlowly cells mutate, reform, degenerate
Reposes our stolen fate, nuclei tears it's self in two
Reproduction breaking through, confirming what is trueThis womb is warm, so life must form
Unaware of living, continue to divide
Through aeons of mutation, variety of life
Breaking through the masses, a form of life is born
Destruction in it's nature, humanity is spawnedRampant micro life
Rampant micro lifeCells join and divide
New forms of life they seek Destruction at it's peakRampant micro life
Rampant micro life
Rampant micro life
Rampant micro lifeUnaware of living, continue to divide
Through aeons of mutation, variety of life
Breaking through the masses, a form of life is born
Destruction in it's nature, humanity is spawned
