

I'll Show You

Vonray

Well, I can see right through this veil
Thinly strewn across your face
Whisper something in my ear
I only need a trace Well, I can only read your mind
When you look into my eyes
A little deeper and we'll find
What we've both been looking for Why are you hiding
Behind all this silence?
I just need some time If you would give me a chance I'd show you
If you would take me away I'd go with you
'Til the end of days when no one else
Listens to a word you say, well, I'll show you Well, I can feel you by my side
Every time that you're away
The only way I can survive
It's just another day I take a sigh of sweet relief
Well, s you walk into the room
Well, as you enter I'm complete
Gone tomorrow all too soon A change in the season
Gives me a reason
To keep it alive If you would give me a chance I'd show you
If you would take me away I'd go with you
'Til the end of days when no one else
Listens to a word you say, well, I'll show you
Well, I'll show you If you give me some time
I'd make it all right around you
Give me a chance to open your hands Well, if you would give me a chance I'd show you
If you would take me away I'd go with you
'Til the end of days when no one else
Listens to a word you say, well, I'll show you If you would give me a chance I'd show you
If you would take me away I'd go with you
'Til the end of days when no one else
Listens to a word you say, well, I'll show you
Listens to a word you say, well, I'll show you
Listens to a word you say, well, I'll show you
