

Sober

James Arthur

When I look at you it's like I've been baptised
It's so spiritual like I've been sanctified
Oh I'm drunk in love and you're BeyoncÃ©Let's get it on
All I gotta say is
I, I, I, II feel like a rolling stoner
Don't think I can keep my composure
Girl, until the night is over
I don't have a thought that is soberWon't you take it off and leave it all behind
If you let me, darling, I could ease your mind
Baby, making love with you is all I wantWhoa, let's get it on
All I wanna say is
I, I, I, II feel like a rolling stoner (oh)
Don't think I can keep my composure (I don't think I)
Girl, until the night is over (girl until the night is over)
I don't have a thought that is sober (I don't have a thought)Heat me up like a soup, baby
Smoke me up till your pupils' crazy
Double vision, everybody singing in sync
R. Kelly, Remix to Ignition
Now there's so many women here, living in the minute
They're stripping in my living room
I wanna be with you
You're just different like Lana Del Rey
You could play me all day like a video game (ooh ooh ooh)
Like a video game (ooh ooh ooh)All I gotta sayI feel like a rolling stoner (yeah, yeah)
I've had too many Coca Cola's (I've had too many)
Living the la vida loca (oh livin' the la vida)
I don't have a thought that is sober (no)I feel like a rolling stoner (I feel like)
Don't think I can keep my composure (oh, don't think I can keep my, no)
Girl, until the night is over (oh, girl until the night is over)
I don't have a thought that is sober (no, I don't have a thought that, I don't have a thought, ah)
