

Let Me Speak

Daughter Darling

You said you'd go
You said you'd go
'Cause she's changing your life
Now you're changing your mind
Take one long at my face and then my eyes
Look deeper now
And you'll see all your lies inside
'Cause I can't take the abuse
Of a fairytale I never knew
My heart will hang you from your toes
Once your lover now your foe
I was your lover now I'm your foe
I'm gonna talk
Now let me talk
I'm gonna speak my mind
A sight so new
Your tears fall through
I'd be crying too if I was you
Let me make this short
I'm gonna make this sweet
While I walk out your door
