Over and over again
We've seen the lives that we let becoming trends
But I wasn't cool back then
What's here today may fade away
Maybe it's too soon to say
It's time for us to take it awayThey say you're popular
I don't wanna see your face again
And I don't care, who you are
'Cause you're never gonna be popular againI can say it and say it again
But it's just a nightmare and life's just not fair
Will this ever end?
Wherever I go I still feel like a joke20 Free, I don't see
The heaven alibi's
Where you been, who you did
Seems to get you by
I'm still waiting for bigger and better things
And I wouldn't have it any other wayPopular
I don't wanna see your face again
I don't care who you are
'Cause you're never gonna be popular againYou must feel so helpless
Stuck in a wet spot around your head
Wonder if you feel useless
And you'll never know how it feels to be popularThey say he's popular
They say she's popular
They say you're popularThey say you're popular
I don't wanna see your face again
And I don't care who you are
'Cause you're never gonna be popular againThey say you're popular
They say you're popular
They say you're popular
Popular again
