

Assistant's Cry

Yello

From time to time they cry
Only if you know why
Here they go A hundred thousand people
Walking down the street
Trying to protect their dream
Following their feet They're busy, lost
Can't find anyone
They're looking for disguise
And the stars could come No more, no tears
Just cries, and fears
I don't believe it
Look at them Really can't believe it
Look at them
They're fucking crazy
Hey, just, ha ha ha ha I can't believe it
Look at them
Alright, alright
Alright folks This was today's show time
And now go home
See you tomorrow
Same time, same place
Take care
