

All Our Lives - Needy Me

Max Milner

You wipe your makeup off
And you look pretty if not prettier
Drenched in chlorine drops
You look silly if not sillier
Constantly getting lost inside
Your naked eyes
Overwhelmed by your curvy lines
As you undress me tonight
Without my glasses I'm blurry-eyed
But I don't mind Well, I'll be the needy me
Where we sat informally
Sharing one cup of Tetley's tea
Curled up watching shit TV
Let's make it a long, long night
The sun's out of sight
When later is light
We'll pull down the blinds
It's a fine, fine line
Between four and five
We'll savor this time
Although we've got all our lives We've stopped the window draft
'Cause it was chilly, getting chillier
And turned the TV off
'Cause we feel to get much filthier
Lose all sense of my space and time
When I'm close to you
Can't rely on our sleepless minds
To pull us through
But I'd rather be sleep-deprived
And making love to you Well, I'll be the needy me
Where we sat informally
Sharing one cup of Tetley's tea
Curled up watching shit TV
We've made it a long, long night
The sun's back in sight
And now that it's light
We've pulled down the blinds
It's a fine, fine line
Between eight and nine

We've savored this time
Although we've got all our lives
For me to be yours and you be mine
Let's indulge in tonight
'Cause tomorrow's the first day
Of the rest of our lives
