Muck Sticky

Phone Ringing

Muck Sticky: Hello.

Sally: Hey Muck Stick, its me Sally.

Muck Sticky: Oh, hey what are you doing?

Sally: um, I was wondering if you could come over.

Muck Sticky: Alright give me 10 minutes and I will be on my way.

I've got three or four girl friends at any given time

But the funny thing is that not a single one of them is mine. mine oh mine

They only ring my phone in the middle of the night.

they call me up cuz they didn't get made right.

I am making them feel good with my phone

They are tellin' me that I am number one.

I saw you call, so I am callin' you back

Callin' You back

Callin' you back

Callin' you back x2

it was two thirteen AM when I heard my phone ring

Phone Ringing

It was old Sally Sue so I knew it could only mean one thing

She only rings my phone in the middle of the night

she calls me up because she didn't get made right

I am making her feel good with my phone

She is telling me I am number one

She'll suck it, she'll stroke it, she'll spread her legs and I'll poke it...
