

Driving Nails

The Rarely Herd

Driving Nails

[VERSE 1]

D G D

Since that blessed night in the manger she watched her baby grow.

D Bm Em A

Seems like yesterday he was in her arms; where did the time go?

D G D

He learned his father's trade as she marveled at it all

D Bm Em A D

Sweat dropped from her little carpenter s he made the timbers fall.

[CHORUS]

Bm G D

She can hear them driving nails upon the hillside.

Bm G A

And she prays that his spirit will not fail.

Bm G D G

She watches as her young man undertakes his Father's will...

Bm A D

As she stands and listens to the driving nails.

[VERSE 2]

D G D

In the streets of Jerusalem a child can disappear.

D Bm Em A

She was frantic as she looked for Him until she began to hear

D G D

Hammers up at the temple, She called him as she ran.

D Bm Em A D

So surprised, she found him teaching like no ordinary man.

[CHORUS]

[VERSE 3]

D G D

Darkness covered all the land in the middle of the day.

D Bm Em A

She began to tremble as the earth began to quake.

D G D

Hammers, nails, and timbers of the carpenter's trade

D Bm Em D

made the sound that pierced her soul as the cross was being raised

[CHORUS]

Bm A D D

yes she cries and listens to the driving..... nails.
