Sunseed

Raul Seixas

You were born at the ending
As the curtain came down
I can see you're confused girl but it's all right
It's only the chimes
Announcing a new timeYou see now
Boats are cruising the deserts
Oceans cracked by the heat
People drowning in raindrops
But it's all right
It's not a defeat
Stand on your own feetRight now the sun doesn't shine
He's loaded on wine
Though I can laugh in the storm
Because I was bornWhen the sun used to Shine in June
