All Things Anew

Angela Hutchins

I'll try to learn the lessons of the heart.
But that can take a lifetime, and a lifetime's all I got.
I'm sorry I'm just a filthy human.

Could you stand with me one more day -
while the flame's burning..

Stand with me one more day to watch the beauty dying.

[Chorus]
Because I can't love you.
The way I wanted to.
The way you need me to..

And in the end

Nobody wins

All Things Are New.
All Things Are New. [x2]

Your tears are heavy - They weigh me down.

And oh how badly I rather drown..

And them..They watch them spill again.

You try to twist and you try to trick.

But it's -

Not a game and so I forfeit.

And the players fall. And still -

Nobody wins.

[Chorus]
Cause I can't love you.
The way I wanted to.

The way you need me to..

(Ooh)

And in the end.
Nobody wins.
But all things are new -
"All Things are new" (All things are new)

No matter what we do

(All Things Are New)
I can't love you the way I want to.

There's no right answer here.. (All Things are new)

I wish that I could disappear.

And tell me God. What should I do?...

(All Things Are New)

[Chorus]
Cause I can't love you.
The way I wanted to.
The way you need me to..

And in the end. Nobody wins.
And all things are new -
All Things Are New

Nobody's sleeping tonight..
The hour struck and nothing's right..

But I promise you -

In the morning due.

That "All Things Will ANew".

And I'm sorry-

[Chorus End]
That I can't love you.
The way I wanted to..
The way you need me to..

And in the end..
Nobody wins.

When All Things ANew..

"All Things ANew"..
