Sabaton•<sup>2</sup>

Warsaw Rise! Do you remember when, when the Nazis forced their rule on Poland 1939 and the allies turned away

From the underground rose a hope of freedom as a whisper City in despair, but they never lost their faith Women, men and children fight they were dying side by side

And the blood they shed upon the streets
was a sacrifice willingly paid Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground whispers of freedom
1944 help that never came

Calling Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground whispers of freedom
Rise up and hear the call

History calling to you
'Warszawa, walcz!' Spirit soul and heart in accordance with the old traditions

1944 still the allies turn away
Fighting street to street in a time of hope and desperation

Did it on their own and they never lost their faith Women, men and children fight
they were dying side by side

And the blood they shed upon the streets
was a sacrifice willingly paid Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground whispers of freedom
1944 help that never came

Calling Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground whispers of freedom
Rise up and hear the call

History calling to you
'Warszawa, walcz!' [Solo - Oskar & Rikard] [2x]

All the streetlights in the city broken many years ago

Break the curfew, hide in sewers
Warsaw it's time to rise now Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground whispers of freedom
1944 help that never came

Calling Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground whispers of freedom
Rise up and hear the call
History calling to you

'Warszawa, walcz!'
