Trees

John Butler Trio

They're cutting down all the trees
Can someone stop them please
Thank God for people in this world
Who dedicate their lives to these
Thank God for people in this world
Who dedicate their lives to trees because
Don't they know if they chop them down
There won't be anything to see?
Don't they know if they chop them down
There won't be anything to breathe?
Don't they know if they chop them down
It's only desert that they leave?
Don't they know anything? No
And it's all for the money, that love for money
Yes, it's sweeter than honey, that love for money
And don't care about the future
Don't care about the past
You just chop those trees down
While the money it still lasts
There's a war going on, yeah
And it ain't in the middle east
It's happening in our own damn country
They're chopping down all the trees
Don't they know if they chop them down
There won't be anything to see?
Don't they know if they chop them down
There won't be anything to breathe?
Don't they know if they chop them down
It's only desert that they leave?
Don't they know anything? No
Hippie, feral, protesters
Call them what you may
But if they weren't here right now
There wouldn't be a tree standing today
Hippie, feral, protesters
Call them what you may
But if they weren't here right now
There wouldn't be a tree standing today
They're cutting down all the, they're cutting down

They're cutting down all the, they're cutting down
Don't they know if they chop them down
There won't be anything to see?
Don't they know if they chop them down
There won't be anything to breathe?
Don't they know if they chop them down
It's only desert that they leave?
Don't they know anything? No
Richard Court, do you know anything?
Liberal Party, do you know anything?
John Howard, do you know anything?
Bunnings, do you know anything?
Simcore, do you know anything? Hell no
