

Breaker 1

Interpol

Come back, come back, I'm the warning
Come back, come back, breaker one
(Come back, come back, breaker one)
Come back, come back, I'm the warning
Come back, come back, breaker one (I'm the warning)
Come back, come back, breaker one You've seen the way when I hold you tight,
You sleep beside me
There is a slope like an appetite,
It descends slowly
And I fear my deep maker,
The ache inside, go away
The vacant mind just awaits
An explosion from the bright side. Come back, come back, I'm the warning
(Come back, come back, breaker one)
Come back, come back, I'm the warning
Come back, come back, breaker one You've seen the way how it happens, right?
This beast inside me
It leads the way then is at my side,
The feast turns to starving
And I feel my deep maker
The ache inside, go away
My aches all of days, surrenders of a wild side
I'm inclined cause I've seen my dreams deep fried
And I take my turns in stride to speed my feet, away Come back, come back, I'm the warning
Come back, come back, breaker one
Come back, come back, breaker one Days begun, grace become Makes weak I just went through so much hell
Went through so much, darling
See my deep maker, the ache inside, go away
The patience to climb all day
The remnants of a mountain
I'm inclined 'cause I need my needs to get by
And I've paid my turns in kind to speed my feet, away Come back, come back, final warning
Come back, come back, breaker one
