The Rhythm Of Life

Freedom Call

Resurrection energy inside
Something that I can't define
Mystery, I leave my fears behind
Something that seems so divine
Over and over again and the rhythm of lifeIntoxication's running through my veins
Confusion, I'm going insane
Fever waves are smashing up my brain
Illusion and madness remain
Over and over againThe rhythm of life, the river of life
On my way to paradise
The rhythm of life, the river of life
The one that keeps us all aliveA fascination penetrates my mind
Hungry, I'm longing for life
Time for me to spread my wings and fly
Hungry, I try to survive
Over and over I tryThe rhythm of life, the river of life
On my way to paradise
The rhythm of life, the river of life
The one that keeps us all aliveThe rhythm of life, the river of life
On my way to paradise
The rhythm of life, the river of life
The one that keeps us all aliveResurrection energy inside
