Gravity (WorldEngine Remix)

Under The Flood

I found another one
Who's infected by greed
Such a lazy one
I think I know what we need
It's a loaded gun
We'll put it right between the teeth
Of a lucky one
We'll put him down on his kness
And tell me why you're so pathetic
Tell me why I shouldn't let it burnOh it's a shame to see such a tragedy
Well you're dead to me you're dead to me
So long to gravity, It can't hold me down
You can't hold me now.You've got the perfect blend
But if you mix it all in
With the filth of men
What comes out in the end is a mockery
A self-righteous disease
Get the gasoline
I think it's just what we need
And tell me why you're so pathetic
Tell me why I shouldn't let it burnOh it's a shame to see such a tragedy
Well you're dead to me you're dead to me
So long to gravity, It can't hold me down
You can't hold me now.I have watched a race of human decay
Waiting for me to break
Did you think that I'd walk away?
How could I believe a disgrace like you?
A waste like you, a waste of so much hate.Can't you see you're in way to deep with the guilty?
Such a tragedy, Well get on your knees get on your knees
Hard to breathe when you're on your knees, get on your knees
Cause you're dead to me.Oh it's a shame to see such a tragedy
Well you're dead to me you're dead to me
So long to gravity it can't hold me down
You can't hold me now
(So long to it)
