

All the Wrong Places

The Jungle Giants

Stare while the night's turning dark
And the fire's in your heart
And you know you should not
But you can't help but wonder what is going on
Find both your shoes
An excuse for your bruises
The good and the bad drive you mad
If you can't tell them apart
Right from the start
And I can't help but think I'm waiting
For darker times and complications
It's my subconscious navigation
Leading me to all the wrong places
Well maybe I'll never learn
Or maybe I'm just not concerned
Maybe we're both that faux
Well maybe two wrongs make a right
Maybe they just might
I can't help but think I'm waiting
For darker times and complications
It's my subconscious navigation
Leading me to all the wrong places
I was only dancing, yeah
Cause I didn't know how else to get
Somewhere that you don't know
I was only dancing, yeah
Cause I didn't know how else to get
Somewhere that you don't know
I can't help but think I'm waiting
For darker times and complications
It's my subconscious navigation
Leading me to all the wrong places
