

What If You're Wrong

Little River Band

Maybe you're right
Maybe this well is run and dry
Maybe it's time to leave the buckets at the bottom
And let go of the light
Maybe that flame is nothing but elders on the ground
Maybe all it would take is a little bit of rain to put it out
Maybe you don't need me
Maybe you're better off alone Yeah, but what if you're wrong?
What if I'm right for you?
What if you'll never find anyone who loves you like I do?
What if these arms that you keep running from
Are right where you belong?
Maybe you're right but what if you're wrong?
Maybe right here yeah, I'm gonna lose my second chance
We can call it a day and you'll go the other way
And just forget about this
And maybe out there, on the other side of that door
Is the change that you need and you won't think about me anymore
Maybe you're gonna find a better love when I'm gone Oh, but what if you're wrong?
What if I'm right for you?
What if you'll never find anyone who loves you like I do?
What if these arms that you keep running from
Are right where you belong?
Maybe you're right but what if you're wrong?
Yeah, baby, what if you're wrong?
And what if I'm right for you?
What if you'll never find anyone who loves you like I do?
What if you go and you leave behind
What you needed all along?
Maybe you're right, but what if you're wrong? Oh, what if you're wrong?
