

Where Have I Been All My Life

George Strait

Been down the road to work and back
Been in what I thought was love a few times
Every once in a while I stop and ask
Where have I been all my life? These days broccoli don't taste so bad
And neither does swallowing my pride
And I'm agreeing more and more with my old man
Where have I been all my life? Some years are clear and some a little blurry
Man, how they fly by
Mom and dad sure got old in a hurry
Where have I been all my life? Been learning that forgiveness is as much for myself
As it is for the other guy
And I read the good book these days and believin'
Where have I been all my life? Some years are clear and some a little blurry
Man, how they fly by
Mom and dad sure got old in a hurry
Where have I been all my life? I heard 'What A Wonderful World' by Louis Armstrong
It brought a tear to my eyes
After all these years I finally get that song
Where have I been all my life?
