

Cry

Auburn

We always used to talk real late after midnight
now the only thing we do on the phone is fight

Is there a way to make this go away
i dont think that were gonna be okay

You were my hero and I was your sidekick now you're gonna be the tear that cry when we split

Baby, I dont think that I can do this
It seems so wrong makin up with only one kiss

Dont think that i could ever be able to stay with you now be Cuz in time i know that well both see we're not meant to be

Cuz you're the one who makes me cry
You would never ever save me

All your words are full of lies
youre not the one i wanna marry

Cuz baby cant you see?
We're just a fantasy?
There's nothing we can do
were not the perfect two

We're not the perfect two
We're not the perfect two
Baby me and you
We're not the perfect two

I thought you were my prince and i was your princess Now that we're here all of this is meaningless

I think i was a fool for letting you fill the spaces between my hands and my diary pages

You used to be the one who made me happy you used to tell me you were lucky Now youre as cold as the winter weather
But i dont are cuz were no longer together

Dont think that could ever be able to stay with you know baby cuz in time i know that well both see
were not meant to be

Cuz you're the one who makes me cry

All your words are full of lies

Cuz baby cant you see?
We're just a fantasy?

We're not the perfect two
Baby me and you
We're not the perfect twooooo ohhhhhhhh ohhhhhhhhho

You know ill never never love you Like the way i ever use to to But you i will remember you

Now that im gonna smile
It took me quite awhile to see wont walk down the aisle

Cuz you're the one who makes me cry

All your words are full of lies

Cuz baby cant you see?

We're just a fantasy?

We're not the perfect two
