

Sixty-Eight

Tuesday

I really think it's bad that it has to be like this.
Even if we were just friends, friends don't act like this.

I wanted to give you everything,
but you wouldn't give me a chance.

You know, nothing to do, isn't nothing to do,
when I'm with you.

There's a full-moon in this train-town tonight.

And I'm thinking of you lost love,
am I just a boy lovesick?

I can't get over this sickness.

Nothing to do, isn't nothing to do,
when I'm with you.

And already I miss you.
