Flood to Flood

Liars

Bring me breakfast after dinner
Don't forget I like my coat on
Tie me up in a red ribbon
Teach how to be a personBring me breakfast after dinner
Keep the weekends for the people
Tie me down when I'm in seizure
Keep me home away from peopleAfter all I'm not a riddle
Twice been caught, but never kept in
I refuse to wake up set in
I refuse to be a personTake him out, take him out
When the weather isn't loud
Take him out, take him out, take him outTake him out, take him out
So the air can clear him out
Take him out, take him out, take him outThey told me not to stay at home alone
So I don't know why its taken them so long
To turn a boat to God
Into a brother god
