

Invisible

Space Cowboy

Ooh ooh invisible

Whoa-oh Ooh Ooh.

This one is called Invisible
She'll make you feel invisible
She'll make you feel like you're not in the room at all
She'll make your heart just disappear
She'll make you feel like you're nothing at all to her
And anything you just said is forgotten anyway and any romance or gesture is just a shout away
And I don't know why I do it, but do it anyway
Guess I'm a glutton for punishment
Just to run away

I am, I am. I am invisible x4

She'll make you feel incredible.
She'll make her mark like indelible ink on you
She'll make you dream a thousand dreams
But when you wake up you're waking up by yourself
And now you feel like there's room for six every day
Reading back numbers to believe in what she say
Why does she say the things she says if she really don't mean it
If there's a glimmer of hope you know you can't believe it.

I am, I am. I am invisible x4

Like a magician she's wishin that I would disappear
Or when I do all she wants me to do is reappear
And I can't take it no more so baby i'm outta here and now my bottles are empty so now my head is clear

Ooh Ooh invisible x3

I am, I am. I am invisible x4
