Dark Blue Tennessee

Taylor Swift

He said, "I got me a nice new apartment
In a city, wouldn't you have hated that?
I'm getting by with a broken heart you left me with."
He hangs up the phone and she whispers back,Missing you like this is such sweet sorrow
Won't you come back to me?
I'll be here, today and here tomorrow
In dark blue TennesseeHe was lying when he said he moved to L.A.
He's just hiding out on the other side of town
With his head in his hands and she's just 7 miles away
He's staring out the window and puts her picture down saying,Missing you like this is such sweet sorrow
Won't you come back to me?
I'll be here, today and here tomorrow
In dark blue TennesseeShe almost called him on the night that he wrote
These simple words on his goodbye noteMissing you like this is such sweet sorrow
Won't you come back to me?
I'll be here, today and here tomorrow
In dark blue TennesseeIn dark blue Tennessee
