Deadbeat Dad

Swift Country

Honey, I aint got the money
Honey, I aint got the money. Your boyfriend might think Im a cad, but call me what I am, Im a dead beat dad.
Susie, I would have been at your play, but sweetie, I thought it was on a different day
Honey, I aint got the money. Your boyfriend might think Im a cad, but call me what I am, Im a dead beat dad.
Billy, I would have been at your baseball game, but Im telling you, son, the traffic is to blame.
Honey, I aint got the money. Your boyfriend might think Im a cad, but call me what I am, Im a dead beat dad.
Its not that I dont love you or dont care, Its just I dont have the time or money I swear.
Honey, I aint got the money. Your boyfriend might think Im a cad, but call me what I am, Im a dead beat dad.
I m no good with schedules and with me money is always tight, But when you really need me I will be there to make things all right.
