Ashes to the Stars

Tarot

Jump into madness awaiting at the seams
of all reality and mind.
Through the wound torn in space and time.
I blink, centuries unwind.Hear the voice of the suns,
Their wind at your face,
The rage of their storm.Spread my ashes to the stars.
Join the raw chaos at heart.
Spread my ashes to the stars.
Fall forever in the dark.Neurons backfire in the onrush of data.
Endless orgasm supreme.
Joining of flesh with fiber and steel.
Lovers, the ghost and machine.Hear the voice of the suns,
Their wind at your face,
The rage of their storm.Spread my ashes to the stars.
Join the raw chaos at heart.
Spread my ashes to the stars.
Fall forever in the dark.Moving astral in the veins of acid
across the silvery skin
Feeding on miracles, clutching like a spider
the ends of space from within.Screamswept blackness, that is my head, dreams all that there will be.
Breeding myself back from the dead
for all this eternity.Hear the voice of the suns,
Their wind at your face,
The rage of their storm.Spread my ashes to the stars.
Join the raw chaos at heart.
Spread my ashes to the stars.
Fall forever in the dark.
