Frailty

The Duskfall

I'm here tonight with a will to find extracting the moments to live What no one knows, cause they're never told we're empty til' the day we die Skip a breath and figure out the rest
you're one of the billions to go Extract your heart, cause it's fragile art it's time to make peace with your fearsTake all the blows, don't regret a thing our anthem will be sung out loud Take all the blows, don't regret a thing don't show me how frail you areTake all the blows, and let it go - we are empty nowI was there a night and I took my flight to the place we once feared Now I've learned to live with all my heart
I know I wasn't that far Skip a breath and figure out the rest
Extract your heart, it's fragile art it's time to make peace with your fears
