

Depths

Watch This Burn

I built your foundation
You burned it to ash
Forgive me was it all for nothing
Was it all for nothing Was it enough to take back all my words
Was it enough to turn your back on me False prophet with a serpents tounge
I refuse to bear witness to your lies
For i have seen the light
When it will crash you down
No longer will i bite my tounge
For your a heretic
And i will bury you
For your a heretic
And i will bury you
When you left me to drown
I've seen right through you its falling apart
And as the water fills your lungs
You've kept a devil inside
You've kept it in to long And i will watch it burn
As you sink to the bottom
Search for Salvation like rats
To a sinking ship
Keep stuttering your last words
For your a heretic
And i will bury you
For your a heretic
And i will bury you When you left me to drown
I've seen right through you it's falling apart
And as the water fills your lungs
You've kept a devil inside you've kept it in to long
Was it all for nothing
Was it all for nothing Watch it burn
Watch it burn
