Oh, Sinner

Seminole String Band

The life that you're living seems fine, seems fine on the outside but if they could see deep down inside you're falling apart.
You're crying out for help through the silence and it seems no one's listening, but the God of all mercy and grace is pleading for your heart.

Oh sinner, why are you running?
God has such love like you've never known.
Oh sinner, Jesus is calling.
Jesus is calling, sinner come home.

You're living your life in a way that to you seems right, but the bible says that way leads to the ways of death.
You're wandering from God in the darkness and you're living all alone.
And where are you going after the grave?

Oh sinner, why are you running?
God has such love like you've never known.
Oh sinner, Jesus is calling.
Jesus is calling, sinner come home.

You find yourself here full of guilt at an old fashioned service and you don't know what you should do, you're running out of time.
You've heard his voice calling here before and you keep on running,
but what you don't know is today may be the last time.

Oh sinner, why are you running?
God has such love like you've never known.
Oh sinner, Jesus is calling.
Jesus is calling, sinner come home.

Lyrics Submitted by SimplyChristianMusic

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/