Quick, Painless and Easy

Ivy

Anyway, you will take what you need
Anyway, you will take it from me
Straight, straight, straight to the ledge
Loose yourself in the soundLook out over the edge I know how you'll go down
Anyway, you will get what you want
Why should I wait for that day to come?
Straight, straight, straight to the ledgeOne last smile and you're gone
Step out over the edge as if nothing is wrong
It will be quick and painless and easy
Quick and painless and easy
I don't want you to leave me but you'll go anywayStraight, straight, straight to the ledge
Loose yourself in the sound
Look out over the edge
I know how you'll go down
