

Little Bit of Love

Joe Cocker

Look at you baby, the picture of a broken man
Your confidence is shaken, the world caved in on you again
But I know what to do to ease the pain
And bring you back to life again
A little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimes
Oh baby, hold me, let all that anger disappear
A little smile is showing, something's catching fire here
And when the morning comes you'll be good as new
You'll take this night that we've shared with you
A little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimes
A little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is stronger than anything
Words ain't enough you need
A little bit of love sometimes
You've done it before, you'll do it again
Get up off the floor, and jump right back in Baby, I still believe in you and we'll see this through
'Cause true love is on our side
A little bit, a little bit
A little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimes
A little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimes, a little bit of love
