Landslide

Day Of Fire

Fault lines are sure to break
Feel the avalanche coming as the body shakes
The river tide rises high when the rain falls
The seasons are screaming
Red skies in the morning, see the signs
Living on a landslide
With a one way ticket that I'm sure to ride in my time
Living on a landslide
Everyday given is on borrowed time no free ride
Tongue tied a graveyard mind the downfall
Flood water soul declined the wreckage swallows
New days are coming as old things pass away
Beneath the landslide, landslide
Living on a landslide
With a one way ticket that I'm sure to ride in my time
Living on a landslide
Everyday given is on borrowed time no free ride
Run, run, run, where will you go
When your ground gives way?
Run, run, run, just letting go
The landslide drains away
Living on a landslide
With a one way ticket that I'm sure to ride in my time
Living on a landslide
Everyday given is on borrowed time no free ride
Run, run, run, where will you go
When your ground gives way?
Run, run, run, just letting go
The landslide drains away
