All Alone (remastered)

Eric Lindell

Well, after I'm through this bottle of wine
I'm gonna take you out girl and spend some time after I do
Just one more round
I'm gonna take you out darlin' on the townI may be high, I may be stoned
But darlin' as far as I can see you're all alone, all aloneGirl, it may be true, honey, I may be the fool
Over here, smilin' and winkin' and makin' eyes at you
I could be wrong, you could have a man
Child, if you do, I'm a fool but try to understand meI may be high, I may be stoned
But darlin' as far as I can see you're all alone, all aloneAfter I'm through with this bottle of wine
I'm gonna take you out, girl and spend some time after I do
Just one more round
I'm gonna take you out darlin' on the townI may be high, I may be stoned
But darlin' as far as I can see you're all alone
That may be why , this chance I know
But as far as I can see you're all alone
