Be a Man

City Sleeps

And so she dances in your crystal ball
The ballerina of the baby dolls
Under a spell, you only call her name
Only her answer can undo your painHer swirling hand is like a magic wand
It's gonna hurt this time, the fairy dust is goneBe a man
Don't let her do that to you
Be a man
Don't let her do that to youShe's a bad girl, gets to cry all day
The darkness is the only place that you play
The broken veins from all your wounds are raw
You're not the only boy that waits for her callBe a man
Don't let her do that to you
Be a man
Don't let her do that to youOh, well, she's on the dark side
Oh, well, and it will neutralizeBe a man
Don't let her do that to you
Be a man
Don't let her do that to youBe a man
Don't let her do that to you
Be a man
Don't let her do that to you
