Wake Up And Say Goodbye

David Usher

Salvation?s on the way
I caught the last flight headed for outer space
My ticket?s all arranged
And if I left you there
Well that was my mistake
Baby?s got the blues
Think that I?ll write it all down
There?s nothing I could do
In order to save myself
I had to cut you loose
Race across the universe
That separates this space between us
All your ghosts are calling at the speed of light I cannot feel
All the ghosts are calling get no answer
Wake up and say goodbye
Lost you on the wind
And as those memories died still I can?t let you in

We all start to fade
Somehow still radiate
Baby?s got the blues
I tried to write it all down
There?s nothing I could do
In order to save yourself
You had to cut me loose
Race across the universe
That separates this space between us
All your ghosts are calling at the speed of light I cannot feel
All the ghosts are calling get no answer
