Right Back at It Again

A Day to Remember

We're coming out swinging!Started out in the spring of 2003.
Never went to school, nobody talked to me.
'cept to tell me all the things I couldn't do.
Don't wanna hear about it.
Got with my guys packed into all our cars.
Hit all the nearest scenes, and every local bar.
and played a show a night 'til it'd made me sick.So here I am.
I'm right back at it again.
Just like I've always said,
"If you're too cool for school
I ain't here to make no friends."
And I'll say, "Hey (hey),
I'm right back at it again."
Just like I've always said,
"If you're too cool for school,
I ain't here to make no friends."We left home with no kinda back up plan,
And everyone we knew that we couldn't stand
Said, "If you can't make it here you won't make it there."
Don't wanna hear about it.
Spent most of our time sleeping on hard wood floors.
People's living rooms, in any open door.
We played a show a night 'til it all made sense.So here I am.
I'm right back at it again.
Just like I've always said,
"If you're too cool for school
I ain't here to make no friends."
And I'll say, "Hey (hey),
I'm right back at it again."
Just like I've always said,
"If you're too cool for school,
I ain't here to make no friends."Don't wanna hear about it,
Don't wanna hear about it yet!So here I am.
I'm right back at it again.
Just like I've always said,
"If you're too cool for school
I ain't here to make no friends."
And I'll say, "Hey (hey),
I'm right back at it again."
Just like I've always said,

"If you're too cool for school,
I ain't here to make no..."Brace for impact!Don't wanna hear about it!
Don't wanna hear about it!Bitch.
