This Room (Live In Session)

Fat Freddy's Drop

I sit and watch you from my window,
Giving yourself away,
You've been working hard all dayI see the ground catch at your feet,
I see the sweet signs of defeat,
Like you're beaten but you feel no painAnd then you turn to me instinctively,
Checking if you're alone,
Like a reflex from my guilty mindI fall away into the background,
Like a shadow on the wall,
To leave you with your peace of mindI watch from my window up high,
All alone in this room,
So many people go the same way,
I think it's time that I changed my viewLike a king in his lonely kingdom,
A ruler who had no rules
Ooh,
Oh I got nothing got left to lose,
I think it?s time that I changed my viewWhy did you choose my way?
Why did you come down this lonely street?
Was it to meet me?
Was it to tango?
Well the roots they sound so sweetSweeter than gold,
Sweeter than fame,
Sweeter than honey
Won't power the moneyWalking along this lonely street,
Someone I'd like to meet,
Someone I'd like to know,
As a kindred souloh so spiritual the sound ran down like waterfalls
Running away never the same
Changing my view of you everydayohhh[I watch from my window up high,
All alone in this room,
So many people go the same way,
I think it's time that I changed my viewsLike a king in his lonely kingdom,
A ruler who had no rules, Ooh
Oh I got nothing got left to lose,
I think it?s time that I changed my views] (x5)
